

KELVIN TSE JOINS REDE CHAMBERS

Rede Chambers
06.09.2024

We are delighted to welcome Kelvin Tse as our newest member.

Kelvin was called to the Bar in 2024. He joined chambers after completing his pupillage with Mr Horace Wong SC, Ms Catherine Wong, Mr Isaac Chan and Mr Roger Phang. Having served 9 months of his pupillage at chambers, Kelvin is our first 'home-grown' member.

Prior to joining the Bar, Kelvin obtained his JD degree from the Chinese University of Hong Kong, graduating top of his class. After completing his PCLL with distinction, Kelvin went on to obtain his BCL from the University of Oxford.

Kelvin is developing a broad civil and commercial litigation practice, with a particular emphasis on company, insolvency, securities, and fraud related matters. He also accepts instructions for applications for injunctive relief. Apart from litigation, Kelvin is developing an arbitration practice and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.
