Justin is developing a broad practice spanning all of Chambers' main practice areas, with particular interests in company, insolvency and commercial disputes, property matters encompassing land, building, building management, town planning and landlord and tenant disputes, trusts, charities, and civil fraud.

Justin regularly appears across all levels of the High Court, including as sole counsel in the Court of Appeal. He has also appeared as led junior in the Court of Final Appeal on a number of occasions. He appears frequently in the Lands Tribunal and has conducted appeals in his own right in the Buildings Appeal Tribunal and the Town Planning Appeal Board. His practice also involves a wide range of advisory work.

Justin has been recognised as a "Rising Star" in the area of commercial disputes by The Legal 500 (Asia-Pacific) 2024. He is described as having "time and again proven himself to be a strong, articulate, natural and eloquent advocate in court" who is "able to hold his own as a sole advocate" and is "effective when making submissions in court, especially when compared with other barristers of similar seniority". Justin's written legal submissions have also been described as being "of high quality."
